Grayback Whales in the Pacific May Become Extinct

(By Associated Press) San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Fifty years ago a "time juicer," as the big whale-rigged sailing vessel of that name was called, would have to short-cut sail and steer a careful course along the South Pacific coast at certain seasons if it wanted to avoid destructive collisions with the California grayback whale. And if the skipper trained his glass along the coast line, he probably would see even exposed rock or seaward shoal black with elephant and fur seals. These in he would note great tortoises and sea turtles, while above would wheel the Heermann gull. When the news of the discovery of the world's largest animal, 24 to 30 feet long and weighing three or four tons when fully grown, disappeared from the ocean. Moved by the nearness of a similar fate for the walrus, the elephant seal, the sea otter and the southern whales, the committee on conservation of marine life of the Pacific, a part of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, has started the campaign to have the state department act.

Further objections to the wholesale extermination of whales have been raised by the sardine fishermen of Monterey bay, California, who claim that the whales herd the sardines inshore. Recently the examination of the stomach of a humpback whale brought into the Moss Landing Whaling station in Monterey bay, yielded from 1,500 to 3,000 pounds of sardines. In the stomach of a sperm whale was found a ten-foot shark.

EXHAUSTED FROM GRIPPE COUGH

Is gripe coughs rack and tear the sufferer to a state of exhaustion. "Would get completely exhausted from violent gripe coughs," writes R. G. Collins, Barnegat, N. J. "Tried Foley's Honey and Tar and the cough ceased entirely." Used by three generations for coughs, colds and croup, throat, chest and bronchial irritation, Foley's Honey and Tar has stood the test of time. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Largest selling cough medicine in the world.

No Bobbed Hair Yet London Wants No-Backed Gown

(By Associated Press) London, Nov. 9.—The "flapper type" of young girl is rapidly disappearing in London. The first signs of waning popularity is the discarding of bobbed hair.

According to West End hairdressers shortened locks are no longer approved, and the coming winter season will see new styles in the art of hairdressing. The most popular substitute for bobbed hair is a short pompadour, and the use of a small ribbon or wreath. This is the favorite style of Princess Mary.

The reversion in hair dressing has even gone to the extent that small amounts of false hair will be used this winter. The new color for fall hats is "green almond," and veils will be worn extensively. The small hat with a veil fastened across the front, which was popular during the war, is to be worn again. The hats will be smaller this fall, but huge shapes, rivaling the "merry widows" of years ago, will be the rage in the spring.

The new evening dresses in the Regent street windows are entirely minus a back, and a cord of white silk has taken the place of a wider shoulder strap. The materials in vogue are dark shades and purple, and heavy silks and satins will be almost the only materials used. Long trains will again grace the ballrooms, and three distinct trains are not too much for one gown.

Rich Oriental brocades and bejeweled ornaments are to be seen on all of the gowns.

for the day on Sunday.

At the Tuesday evening meeting of the town council a "Clean-Up week" was appointed beginning November 13.

The street committee was authorized to open the west end of Dotney street as far as Rowley street.

Action was taken to hasten the accomplishment of the bond issue for electricity.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Morrison are attending a meeting of the presbytery in St. Augustine this week.

Mrs. Gladys Beasley, of Tampa, with her five children, arrived Sunday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Matilda Solana, at East End.

Elizabeth and James Baker, children of Mr. and Mrs. Will Baker, are reported on the sick list, with Dr. Steep in attendance.

The San Mateo B. Y. P. U. members and friends enjoyed a Halloween masquerade party on Monday evening, October 30.

On account of the unpleasant weather only about fifty persons were present. The interior and also the exterior were prettily decorated with palms, moss, magnolias, roses, and the usual Halloween colors were tastefully displayed in the way of streamers, black cats and jack-o'-lanterns.

The judges for all prizes were Mrs. Perry Hanor, Mrs. Ben Turner and Mrs. Frederic S. Mead. The prize offered for the best costume was won by Ruth Jewett, wearing the black cat costume. Ira Ferrell won the prize in the doughnut eating race. In the apple-ducking contest Radcliffe Carrington received the prize. Richard Rogero was awarded the prize for the paper cutting contest. Cora Solana and Ida Ferrell both received prizes for the candy race. A ghost story was read by a ghost present, and the usual fortunes foretold. Several other games were played and two clowns did their part in the entertainment. After the refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served, the guests departed all seemingly having spent a very enjoyable evening.

Light-Six Roadster

Studebaker

It is not necessary to buy a high-priced roadster to get maximum comfort. Comfort is a matter of correct design. Comfort is built into the Studebaker Light-Six.

The seat is placed at just the right angle for relaxation and is provided with big, fat cushions, upholstered in genuine leather. The semi-elliptic springs are long, strong and resilient.

There is ample luggage space under the rear deck—plenty of room for everything you may want to carry.

Vibration, which is so destructive to motor cars, is practically eliminated by the perfect balance of the motor. This is largely due to the fact that the crank-shaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces, an exclusive Studebaker practice for cars at anywhere near the Light-Six price.

Economy of operation is increased by valves inclined at a 20-degree angle and by the internal hot spot.

This handsome roadster is a quality car throughout. It is sold at $975 only because of complete manufacture, in large volume, in one of the most modern and complete motor car plants in the world.

Middlemen's profits are thus eliminated, and the savings are passed on to you.

The Light-Six Roadster well upholds Studebaker's 70-year reputation for dependability and dollar-for-dollar value.

Attractive cowl lights. Thief-proof transmission lock. Cowl ventilator. Storm curtains opening with the doors. Large plate-glass window in rear curtain. Inside and outside door handles. Upholstered in genuine leather. Ample space under the rear deck for luggage.

Notice to Property Owners

We, the undersigned dealers in real estate, have formed a co-operative association known as THE PUTNAM COUNTY REALTORS' ASSOCIATION, and have affiliated ourselves with the Florida State Realtors' Association and the National Association of Realtors. We are the only dealers in real estate who may use the name REALTORS in connection with our work.

A REALTOR is a man skilled in the best methods of buying and selling real estate, who conducts his business in an honorable way, who belongs to his home real estate board and associates and co-operates with the leading business men of his locality. He so highly regards his vocation and business that he will not permit himself to be connected with any transaction that is not strictly honorable and fair.

The Putnam County Realtors Association

has been formed to give better and more efficient service to the people of Putnam County. In the future the members of this association will list only such property for sale as has been given them on an exclusive basis. Property so listed by any REALTOR will be listed in all of the REALTORS' offices, and the owner will have the advantage of having six firms working for his interest, instead of one.

Exclusive Listing

This is a manifest advantage to the property owner as well as to the Realtor, as it warrants closer attention by the broker, does away with the "hocking" system so long in vogue, insures a fair price to the owner, does away with excessive and unfair commissions, and places the transaction on a dignified basis.
